

PREFACE

Main Hoon Kaun? (Who am I?)

WELCOME NOTE

A Note for You, Young Explorers

Welcome to a very special journey!

In your hands, you aren't just holding a book — you are holding a magic key. Our series is called Main Hoon Kaun?, which means 'Who am I?' We created these pages just for you, to help you discover the amazing stories and secrets of your Indian heritage.

Our world is full of bright colors and wonderful tales, but sometimes the most important ones get hidden. These workbooks are here to bring them back to life! By tracing new words, using your logic to solve puzzles, and coloring beautiful pictures, you are building a bridge to your roots.

This isn't just about learning facts — it's about connecting with the spirit of India, feeling the joy of discovery, and having a fun way for you and your parents to talk, laugh, and learn together. So grab your pencils, open your heart, and let's start this adventure together!

Whether you are coloring a friendly cow or tracing a new word, remember: every page you complete helps you answer that big, exciting question: 'Who am I?'

Lord Ganesha

CLUE TIME!

- I have the head of an elephant and a big tummy.
- I love eating sweet modaks and my vahan is a tiny mouse.
- I am the remover of obstacles and always worshipped first.

TRACING ZONE

English

LORD
GANESHA

Hindi

गणेश गणेश

PRACTICE ZONE

English

Hindi

Cow

CLUE TIME!

- I give you fresh milk every morning.
- I live in a shed and love eating green grass.
- People in India call me 'Gau Mata'.

TRACING ZONE

English

COW

Hindi

गा

PRACTICE ZONE

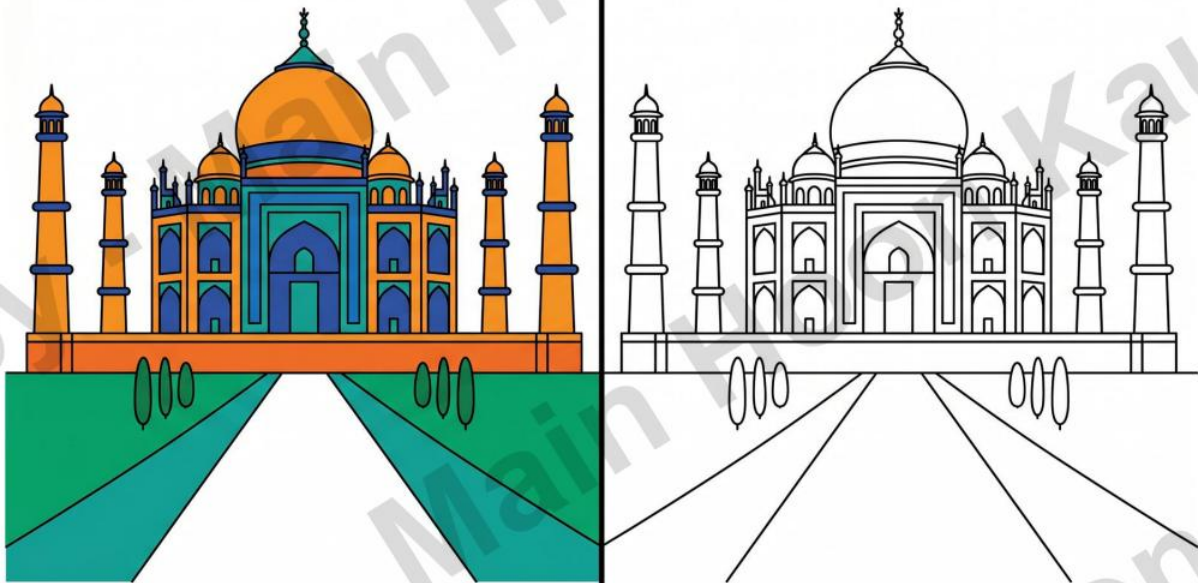

English

Hindi

Taj Mahal

CLUE TIME!

- I am a beautiful white marble mausoleum in India.
- I was built by an emperor in memory of his beloved wife.
- I am located on the banks of the Yamuna river in Agra.

TRACING ZONE

English

TAJ MAHAL

Hindi

ताज महल

PRACTICE ZONE

English

Hindi
